

Mondo Mediterraneo. Giancarlo Acciavati and Gemma Mirabilio founded Mondo Mediterraneo twenty years ago, in Amsterdam. Amongst their guests the mother of the bride to Tommy Hilfiger to Citibank's top executives.

Strongly linked to their Mediterranean origins, Giancarlo is a trained chef with a flair for style and atmosphere and Gemma is the genius in the kitchen, preparing everything from delicate pastries to robust and authentic main courses using only organic ingredients from the lands of the Mediterranean Sea.

Palazzi Events, founded in 1990, is an Italian event planner and Gas communication, founded in 2004, is its sister company. Working together as Palazzi & Gas they provide a powerful party and event making and promoting machine.

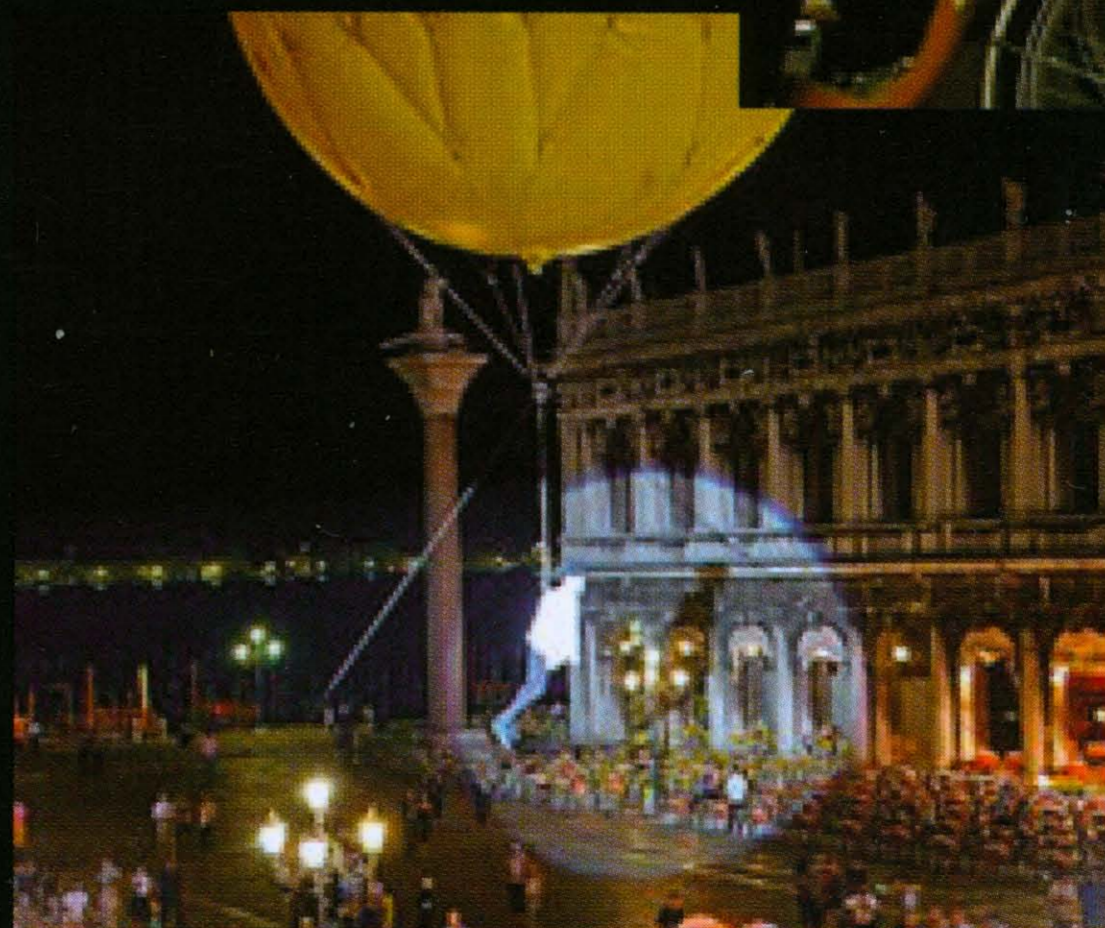

Known for their creativity and attention to detail, Palazzi & Gas can organise anything from corporate to cultural events, arrange for everything from gadgets to gorillas, then have enough time and energy left over to make sure that everyone has a good time.

Sie7e Sentidos Eventos is a Madrid-based event planning company whose motto is "creamos calidad". It takes a sixth sense to delight the other five, but that is just what they have.

Their events seek to delight the senses of taste through excellent food and wine, touch through sensual locations, smell through well planned floral arrangements and candles, sight through beautiful settings and lovely lighting and hearing through well thought out music and entertainment programmes. They can do everything from location to lighting and logistics.
